<http://ffa.cccs.edu/> Constitution and Bylaws(Article X)

*If a CJSA exhibitor breaks any rules or by-laws, he or she could lose all points for that year, and it can affect future membership which is to be determined by the CJSA board.

*All pigs being used to earn points at CJSA sanctioned shows must be owned by the immediate family (brother, sister, step-brother, step-sister); once that sibling starts showing that pig as a CJSA pig, it will not change hands to another sibling or another non-family exhibitor at a CJSA sanctioned show.

* CJSA members must be present and exhibit their own animals to accumulate points. If member has more than one pig in a class or in case of extenuating circumstances as determined by the board, only a CJSA member is allowed as a substitute showman.
